

A private school with over 30 years of experience, Canvas opens the door to creative careers in Fashion, Applied Visual Arts, and Emerging Media.

Fields where ideas take shape and creativity becomes a profession.

At Canvas, our educational approach combines theory and practice, technical training and artistic exploration, within a bilingual (French/English) and multicultural learning environment.

Guided by experienced professionals, students experiment, develop their artistic identity, and gain the confidence needed to forge their own path in the professional world.
